ROW OF POPULIST LEADERS

Vincent Brings Suit Against the Present Owners of the Party Organ.

They Decline to Puff His Books Any More-Lots Belonging to the Founder of Woodroff Place-Court Briefs.

Leo Vincent yesterday filed suit in the Saperior Court against Leroy Templeton, Lucius A. Stockwell, Thomas S. East and Wilson Corey, asking $10,000 damages for the alleged breach of a contract. All the parties to the suit are prominent in the Populis, party, and recognized as leaders in this State. Two of the defendants, Templeton and Stook well, were candidates upon State ticket at the last election. The plaintiff sets up a partnership between himself and brother, Henry Vincent, in the publication of the Nonconformist, a weekly paper, published in the city, and the national organ of the Populist party. Afterwards the partnership was dissolved by mutual agreement, by the terms of which Henry continued the publication of the paper, and Leo took charge of and continued in the publishing business which had theretofore been carried on in connection with the paper. The complaint alleges that by the terms of the "dissolution" the plaintiff was to have advertising space in the paper to the extent of 125 columns per year, not to exceed three columns in any one issue, which space was to be used for advertising the plaintiff's publishing business, and he to pay for the composition of all the matter therein contained; it was also agreed that he was to be given such transportation as the paper might receive in return for advertising space, not necessarily used by the paper 10 its business. In January of this year the paper again changed hands, this time passing into the control of the defendants. who, it is alleged, had full knowledge of the terms of the agreement between Henry Vincent and the plaintiff, and took the paper with existing obliga-

The complaint charges that the defendants now and for several weeks past have plaintiff's advertisements, and have refused to provide him with transportation when requested. The plaintiff alleges that his book-publishing business is mostly of standard works on reform and "equi-nomical" subjects and "litature," that the business is of long standing and dura-tion, and has always been conducted in connection with the said Nonconformist, which, it is said, at the time of the differ-ent sales, had a circulation of forty thou-sand throughout the United States, and in States and localities where plaintiff's pa-trons resided, most of whom were the con-stant readers of the paper. For this rea-son he alleges that the advertisement in the Nonconformist was especially valuable to him, and that he cannot secure the same returns by advertisements in other papers. On account of these alleged breaches of the contract, Leo Vincent says he has been damaged in the sum of $10,000, and asks judgment for that amount.

Had Cruelly Beaten His Mother.

In the Police Court, yesterday morning. Ed Maiden was arraigned for assault and battery upon his mother. As usual, the mother, still true to her undutiful son, was in the court and pleaded for mercy to her boy. In mitigation of his offense she said that he was drunk at the time, or he would never have struck her. He was a good son, she said, except when he was drunk. Judge Buskirk did not heed the woman's defense of her son, and ordered police matron Buchanan to examine the woman and ascertain the extent of her injuries. Mrs. Buchanan retired with the woman, and in a few minutes reported the result of the examination. She said that she found a great many discolorations of the flesh upon various parts of the body. There was a bruise upon the breast and a large black mark upon one of her arms, showing that the assault had been a violent one. The police judge then proceeded to assess a fine of $500 against Maiden, and sentenced him to 180 days' imprisonment in the work-house, which was the limit of his jurisdic-

Founder of Woodruff Place, Judge Brown yesterday appointed William A. Van Buren trustee of certain mortgages given upon two lots in Woodruft Place in 1874 by James O. Woodruff, who laid out the place, and after whom it was named. At the time of laying off the place Woodruff gave a mortgage apon these lots to secure payment of two bonds for $1,000 each, with William Henderson as trustee. Woodruff and Henderson have both since died. Stephen Fletcher, one of the substitutes named in the mortgages, is now a nonresident of the State, and Stoughton A. Fletcher, the other substitute, being in ill health and only occasionally in the city. James Seymour, the owner of the bonds, made the application for the appointment of another trustee. The trustee is directed to satisfy the mortgages and release the lots from the incumbrance upon the surrender and cancellation of the mortgage, the trustee to receive $1 for each bond canceled. They Settled the Claim, in the small hours of Thursday morning Constable Sorters appeared at the Occidental Hotel, armed with a capies for John B. Wills and Monte Collins, who appeared at the Park this week in "Two Old Cronies." After a little time he was admitted to the sleeping apartments occupied by the theatrical gentlemen, and served the capias upon them. The capias was issued upon the affidavit of Frank Tyner, manager of the "opposition car" for Forepangh's circus, and was for a claim of $65,50, alleged to be due for services rendered in the capacity of advance agent for the company during its last season. There was considerable palavering over the bill. till Constable Sorters informed the men that they would have to "settle" or go to jail. Thereupon they produced $100 in cash. which was deposited as bond for their appearance yesterday morning, when they came in and paid the claim.

Divorce Refused.

Acting Judge Winters yesterday refused the petition of James L. Wensley for divorce from Margaret Wensley. The trial of the case was begun vesterday morning. and not being completed by noon the witnesses were excused for dinner and ordered to return at 2 o'clock. At this hour one of the witnesses for the plaintiff, who could not afterward be found, was seen about the court room. When he was wanted to testify and could not be found, the de-fendant said that he had come to her and offered to leave the city and not testify for $1, saying that he had a ticket. The de-fendant declined to pay and he then re-duced the amount by half, and offered to leave for 50 cents, but this was also de-clined by the defendant; nevertheless, the witness was not on hand when he was wanted to testify.

Held for Counterfeiting. Joseph Counselman, arrested at Waverly on Wednesday by United States Marshal Hawkins, was granted a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Moores yesterday on a charge of counterfeiting. A half dozen witnesses testified to having been the victims of Counselman's spurious coin, and a number of counterfeit quarters and half dollars were produced, and proved to have been passed by the prisoner. In ex-tenuation of his offense, Counselman claimed that during the month of March last he brought a load of pop corn to this city for sale, and received, from an unsilver, which he had, in turn, circulated among his Waverly neighbors, unaware of the quality of the money. His story had little effect upon the Commissioner, and Counselman was bound over to the United States grand jury in the sum of $1,000. Failing to furnish the necessary bond, he was taken to the Noblesville jail by Deputy Craft and Ross Discharged. The charge of murder against Samuel Craft and George Ross was dismissed in Police Court yesterday morning, there being no evidence upon which to hold the men. They were arrested last Thursday night by detectives McGuff and Thornton upon information received by telegram from Yellow Springs, O. A telegram was received from that place stating that John Valentine had died there, and before dying claimed that he had been assaulted and robbed of pension money in this city by the two men who were arrested for his murder. After the arrest the evidence against the men was not forthcoming, and they were released.

Steeg Released, Judge Brown yesterday granted the petition of John L. F. Steeg to be released from the bond of Constable George R. Hutton. A new bond in the sum of $1,000, with Councilman George Colter and Marketmaster John Schiltges as sureties, was filed by Hutton and approved by the court.

Boy Burgiars Held. John Wyatt, Clyde Milroy and Robert Landes, the three boys arrested Thursday night by Merchant policeman Clary while in the act of burglarizing Hart's shoe store, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning, and were held for the action of the grand jury.

Mejor Wildman Qualifies. James A. Wildman yesterday qualified as assignee of Miles M. Reynolds, and gave bond in the sum of $40,000.

Engine 167 had instructions to run forty miles an hour. The headlight of Engine 172 was defective, but a lamp substituted for, provided by the railroad company, could be seen at least four miles. It was night, Ferris ran to Argos, entered on the side track, waited awhile, and then, without orders, ran on to awhile, and then, without orders, ran on to the main track, and proceeded on to his destination, without orders, and in violation of the only order he had received. He was a careless and reckless engineer, but neither the appellant nor appellee knew that fact. A collision occurred, and appellee was injured. Held, that appellant was not liable for its remote negligence to provide a proper headlight; that Ferris's disobedience of his order to wait at Argos butil Engine 167 had passed was the proximate cause of the injury, for which act appellant was not liable, because Ferris was a fellow-servant of the appellee. "REMEMBER SIMEON COY!"

Warning Note Sounded at the School Board Last Night by Mr. Vonnegut.

Frenzel Promptly Sat Upon Him, of Course-Dissatisfaction with the Heating Apparatus of the New Library.

The white dove of peace hovered over the meeting of the School Board last night and remained undisturbed throughout the entire meeting. Only once did it flutter its wings as if to fly from the scene and then it was stayed by President Frenzel promptly putting a stop to the breeze which only started to blow when commissioner Vonnegut introduced his regular biweekly communication. The communication was as follows:

To the Honorable School Board: Gentlemen - You will remember my promise to stir up the question of interest as often as I could, hence the necessity of presenting it from different aspects. Many actions are forbidden by law, and other equally wrong actions are not, but are just as dangerous to justice and to the rights of the people. To the first belongs the falsification of tally sheets, to the latter the obtaining of votes under false pretenses. Remember Coy and Bernhamer, and then compare their action with the promise of voting for School Board treasurer. Mr. Frenzel seems not to feel that he is doing wrong, and probably will not realize it as long as he has five men of this board to back him. Ask the voters of Districts 4, 7 and 8. They will tell you what they think about this case. This board is not the proper place to represent the welfare of the banks to the detriment of the school fund.

However, I had the assertion from one of ou resident's supporters that he would vote for a motion to consure the guilty party. I will, therefore, make the test, and now move that the board herewith censure its treasurer and president for their conduct in the question of inter-CLEMENS VONNEGUT. Mr. Vonnegut did not say who the supporter of Frenzel was, but, as he concluded the reading of the communication, he turned to Commissioner Russe and said: "Henry, will you second that motion?" Mr. Russe declined to accommodate him, however, and no second being received, the communication took the usual course, and was filed with the assistant secretary. A communication was received from O

R. Johnson, secretary of the Music Festival Association, asking that the schools be closed during the afternoons of the lestival, to give teachers and pupils an oppor-tunity to attend the matinees. No action was taken upon the communication by the

The board then heard reports from the various standing committees. The committee on finance reported that the board's attorney had advised that they draw on the special fund of School No. 3 for $374.50 and upon the library fund for $421.31 to pay street improvement assessment. The treasurer was ordered to pay a warrant for $795.81 to be drawn for this purpose. The committee was authorized to solicit proposals for the purchase of four notes of $1,000 each given by Mrs. Hamlin as deferred payments on school property No. 15, on West Market street. The notes to be sold for not less than par and accrued interest. The claim of Mr. Luedermann for brick, and Twiname for extras in the construction of school building No. 29 were not allowed. lowed. Bills to the amount of $6,134 were reported paid.

The committee on heating reported the very uneatisfactory condition of the heatremedy their defective work. The commit-tee had consulted the attorney of the board and upon his advice recommended that the board rescind its contract with the company and institute suit against them and upon their bond for damages on account of their negligent work. The contract for the heating apparatus was let July 19, 1892, and the work was to have been completed Oct. 1, 1802. It was completed about six weeks ago, but the work was so unsatisfactory that the board refused to accept it and a light was to have been company. Mr. Went, representing the company, visited the city and inspected it. After the inspection he admitted that it was a very poor piece of work, and said he would return at once and submit new drawings. These drawings have not been forthcoming and the board decided to bring the suit.
On account of the delay in the construction of the heating apparatus it was decided to abolish the office of engineer until the further action of the board.

The delay in the construction of the new Library Building, caused partially by the plasterers' strike, rendered it not advisable to occupy it by the 1st of June. and the treasurer of the board was directed to make arrangements for the occupancy of the present quarters, at as reasonable terms as could be seenred, until Aug. 1.

The committee on buildings and grounds reported that school No. 5, at the corner of Washington and California streets, was in a bad condition and leaked at every con-siderable rain, and recommended that the attorney for the board be directed to bring and upon their bond. The building is a new one, having been built only last year.

One of the most interesting programmes ever offered at the Woman's Club was that of yesterday. Coming at the season when art in its various forms has been and is receiving much consideration, it was especially enjoyable. Mrs. John M. Spann read an Painters," in which she reviewed her subject well, and not a few of those mentioned pictures which have been shown and some which are owned in this city. Following Mrs. Spann, Mrs. William L. Elder read a paper on "An Analysis of Wagner, Illustrated." Mrs. Elder showed Wagner's aim in composition and illustrated her remarks on the piano. The review was a comprehensive one, and the grace and ease of Mrs. Elder's explanations produced the greatest enthusiasm among her hearers. To add to the exceeding pleasure Mrs. Elder was assisted by Mr. John Chislett, violinist, and Mr. A. Schellschmidt, cellist. The illustrations were mostly trios, and the first were relactions from the the first were selections from the operas, the "Spinning Song," from "The Flying Dutchman; "Evening Star," from "Tannhauser," played by Mr. Chislett. Then the "Vorspiel" and "Wedding March," from "Lohengrin." The second part was the music dramas. Mr. Schelischmidt played "Walther's Prize Song," from the "Meistersinger," and this was followed by "Love and Death," from "Tristan and Isolde." Mrs. Elder played the "Magic Fire Scene," from the "Nibelungen," and the trio followed with "Sigmund's Love Song," from the "Walkyre." In conclusion the selection was from "Parsifal," the motif being "Expiation." The whole was a subject so presented that it made an afternoon of the rarest enjoyment. All who particithe first were selections from the of the rarest enjoyment. All who participated were greatly complimented by every member of the sinb.

avenue, was the scene last night of a very delightsul musicale. Quite a number of ber daughter's young friends 'are musical, and they have been preparing for an evening for some time. Mrs. McCurdy gave her house and extended invitations to her friends and the parents and friends of the performers, so that when all had assembled there was quite a large company.

Palms and flowers adorned the rooms and made them most inviting. The programme included:

Two pianos, "Village Band," Meyer, Misses Busking, Burton, Moore and Hawes; mandolin and piano, "Grace Note Galop,"

Misses Blanche and Ella Johnstone; "La Chatelaine," fantasia, Ledge Mass Edge. MUSICALE AND SOCIAL. The Meridian-street Methodist Episcopal Church congregation and friends were delightfully entertained last night. In the audience room a musicale, under the direction of Miss Sadie Walker, was given from 8 till 9, which in selection and rendition was equally good. Mr. Charles F. Hansen, always a favorite, played two compositions, and accompanied Miss Walker, Miss May of this city, is visiting Mrs. Lyon, on College avenue.

Market street of six numbers was so well performed that to give a preference to any one taking part would be difficult. The social in the church parlors was in charge of Mrs. William B. Burford. Mrs. Anna Walker and Mrs. Chapman Williams, who were assisted by about twenty of their young friends in serving the refreshments and extending hospitality. The floral decorations in all the rooms were handsome and lavish. A large number of friends from the different churches were present.

WESLEYAN SEMINARY ALUMNÆ. The pupils of the Wesleyan Female Seminary belonging to the Indiana branch held their annual reunion yesterday afternoon with Mrs. King, No. 1728 North Meridian street, and there was a very good attendance. These meetings are held that old acquaintance may be continued and new ones may be made, each succeeding year bringing some new graduate from the institution to join the ranks. It had been hoped that Mrs. McKee, of the seminary, might be present, but regrets came from her late. It is said that every literary society in the city has some graduate of the seminary among its members. Reports of the last meeting were read, and many mat-ters of school and home were talked over by the ladies. Among those present were Mrs. Margaretta Brewer Dickey of Dakota. Springfield, O., who are Mrs. W. L. Elder's Miss Augusta McCoy of Connersville and guests.

THE JOURNAL'S BOX

Insures a Paper Every Morning.

THE JOURNAL will send the Daily paper (Sunday excepted) to new subscribers for five weeks, and put up one of these boxes, on receipt of

ONE DOLLAR

Old subscribers will be served with boxes, put up, at 25 cents for a No. 1, or 35 cents (lock included) for a No. 2. The cut herewith shows you the best newspaper box

THE COLBY LOCK BOX.

Never before offered in this city, fills the bill for simplicity and practical use.

It is made of HEAVY SHEET STEEL, coated with the best mineral paint, and practically INDESTRUCTIBLE, is NEAT, CONVENIENT and CHEAP. They not only SE-CURE Newspapers and Mail delivered by carrier FROM SNEAK-THIEVES, but prevent papers from being blown away, and are a PERFECT PROTECTION FROM RAIN, SNOW AND DIRT.

As a Letter Box alone it is a great convenience, and saves time for both carrier and receiver of mail.
